Save A Corner Of Your Heart

Poco

Save a corner of your heart for me
Keep it for a rainy day
Just a little touch, you won't miss it much
Won't you save, save it for me?Well, I'm not the kind who keeps track of time
Still, I've seen the seasons change
It's such a subtle move, such a gentle groove
You don't feel it slip away, won't you?Save a corner of your heart for me
Keep it for a rainy day
Just a little touch, you won't miss it much
Won't you save, save it for me?Oh, it can't be long, we must carry on There's so much we have to do
But, every time I hear lovers whisper near
I will always think of you, won't you?Save a corner of your heart for me
Keep it for a rainy day
Just a little touch, you won't miss it much
Won't you save, save it for me?Yeah, just toe the line for now
I'll get back there somehow
Give it a chance, you'll seeSave a corner of your heart for me
Keep it for a rainy day
Just a little touch, you won't miss it much
Won't you save, save it for me?Yeah, save it, save it for me
Won't you save?
Won't you save it for me?
Save it, save it for me
Won't you save it?Save it, save it for me
Won't you save it?
Save it, save it for me
Won't you save it?
