Your Touch

Color Me Badd

Love was whispering my fate
I heard it through your smile
Now I get through every day, baby
Just to hold you at night, yeahThere is no star out of my reach
And forever's not to long
Nothing is impossible, baby
When I'm with you, when I'm with youI can finally believe now without my pride
When I'm reachin' out to love from inside
And I can never be afraid with the comfort of
Your touch, your touchA thousand worries fade away
The sweetness of your kiss, your kiss
And all the walls come fallin' down
'Cause your love is everything, everything to meI can finally believe now without my pride
When I'm reachin' out to love from inside
And I can never be afraid with the comfort of
Your touch, your touchOnly you there, only you
Hold on, hold on to meBaby, I can finally believe now without my pride
When I'm reachin' out to love from inside
And I can never be afraid with the comfort of
Your touch, your touchI can finally believe now without my pride
When I'm reachin' out to love from inside
And I can never be afraid with the comfort of
Your touch, your touchI feel you now, feel your touch
