

Lie (Acoustic Version) [Bonus Track]

Otep

You'll think of me
When the rain comes down
You'll think of me
When the thunder rumbles the ground
You'll think of me
When you try to dream
You'll think of me
When all of your lies collide
I hurt so easy but I'll never show it
You lie, lie, lie to my face
You lie, lie, lie behind my back
You lie, lie, lie, I've seen through your disguise
Burn the truth and tell another lie through your teeth
Spit your story out and leave
'Cause I don't hear a word you say to me
You lie, lie, lie
You lie, lie, lie
You lie, lie, lie
You'll think of me
When the silence falls
You'll think of me
But I won't think of you at all
When the orchards bloom in the feral moon
You'll be stuck within the stitch you threaded with lies
It felt so good
But it never felt right
You lie, lie, lie to my face
You lie, lie, lie behind my back
You lie, lie, lie, I've seen through your disguise
Burn the truth and tell another lie through your teeth
Spit your story out and leave
'Cause I don't hear a word you say to me
You lie, lie, lie
You lie, lie, lie
You lie, lie, lie
You'll think of me
You'll think of me
You're lying to me
You're lying to you
Beauty's only skin-deep
But ugly goes all the way through
Lie, lie, lie
You lie, lie, lie to my face
You lie, lie, lie behind my back

You lie, lie, lie, I've seen through your disguise
Burn the truth and tell another lie through your teeth
'Cause I don't hear a word you say to me
You lie, lie, lie
You lie, lie, lie
You lie, lie, lie
