Move On

Plain White T's

I'm feeling sick of feeling sorry for myself
'cause I know I don't belong and I won't place the blame on anybody else
don't have to take it
and i won't give in to this you make me feel like i'm evil but the record shows i'm not i don't belong
as i sit back i see it's you who feels the need to put me down so you belong
I'll just move on

gonna make my move today
it's gonna be ok
i won't sit back and watch it drown
don't have to take it
