

In And Out Of Love

Diana Ross

Keep falling In And Out Of Love,
In search for what I'm dreaming of,
I long to find a love I'm sure about,
That certain kind of love that moves all doubts.

Keep falling In And Out Of Love,
Still searching for that special one,
To whom I can give my love completely,
And feel a lasting love so sweetly.

Just when I feel sure love's here to stay,
It seems to suddenly just fade away.
Keep falling In And Out Of love,
Can't seem to find the lasting kind,
It seems I can't find the joy I need,
Love always somehow all goes wrong with me.

Keep falling In And Out Of Love,
Keep falling In And Out Of Love,
I keep reaching out for tenderness,
Touching a hand that holds emptiness.

Keep falling In And Out Of Love,
Still searching for that special one,
To whom I can give my love completely,
And feel a lasting love so sweetly.

Can't seem to find that everlasting love,
That this heart of mine needs so much of.
Keep falling In And Out Of Love
Can't seem to find the lasting kind,
It seems I can't find the joy I need,
Love always somehow all goes wrong with me.

Keep falling In And Out Of Love,
In search for what I'm dreaming of,
I long to find a love I'm sure about,
That certain kind of love that moves all doubts.

Well I'm looking for a love that lingers on,

Long after that first kiss is gone.
That kind of love that keeps burning bright,
Long after we've said goodnight.

Keep falling In And Out Of Love,
In search for what I'm dreaming of,
I long to find a love I'm sure about,
That certain kind of love that moves all doubts.

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by Holland, Edward, Jr. James / Dozier, Lamont Herbert / Holland, Brian Lyrics © EMI Music Publishing, Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>