

Drop of Honey

Eric Kufs

All the seats were taken at the white light soul review
An overnight sensation I know how you paid your dues
I've seen your act before
And I don't know why I'd pay to see any more

Hold up baby I ain't gonna stand in no line
Pardon me, I'm not wasting all the rest of this night
For a little drop of honey

A spoonful is poison if you're dying for a fix
What ain't enough to cure you, can only make you sick
I ain't waiting around
For the medicine to go down

Hold up baby I ain't gonna stand in no line
Pardon me I'm not wasting all the rest of my time
For a little drop of honey

Well I have lived and I've learned with you all I get is burned
You're so sweet and so nice
But only a fool gets suckered twice

Hold up don't do a little dance, don't shake your ass, you missed your chance baby
If you want me you can call me
Your teenage dreams and candy scenes are fewer now and far between lately
You're a little drop of honey»;
