Flapper Girl

The Lumineers

Cut off all of your hair
Did you flinch, did you care
Did he look, did he stop and stare
At your brand new hair
Local boy, local news,
Power lines, hanging boots,
Firemen in their trucks cut loose
A local boy boy' shoes
Cadillac, Cadillac,
Buisinessman dressed in slacks,
I'mma buy one for us when I get back,
A big Cadillac
And you can wave to all of your friends,
And I'll never leave you again
Would you write, would you call back baby
If I wrote you a song
I've been gone but you're still my lady and
I need you at home
Romeo, Juliet,
Balcony in silhouette,
Making O's with a cigarette
Is Juliet
Flapper girl, flapper girl,
Prohibition in curls,
Hair of gold and a neck of pearls,
Is flapper girl
And you can wave to all of your friends,
And I 'll never leave you again
Would you write, would you call back baby
If I wrote you a song,
I've been gone but you're still my lady and
I need you at home
And if you ain't behind my door
Then I ain't got a home anymore
Would you write, would you call back baby
If I wrote you a song,
I've been gone but you're still my lady and
I need you at home
Lovers come, lovers go, lovers leave me alone

She'll come back to me

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/