

Chasing

Gemma Hayes

I got a little secret in my heart,
Damn beats are sick and my mind throws punches in the dark
Not sure what I am looking for anymore
Outside is black and white, we laying colour on the floor
ooh ooh ooh
Nothing has meant more to me, my love
Half alive here, oohI'm chasing it, that sweetness
Chasing it, the sweetness
I got a little secret in my heart,
Now I count the faults of every word from your mouth,
I look at you once, your slight of hand, the rush of blood, you pull me near Before the water rushes in, show me how to disappearSay something that'll carry me away
Say something that'll make me stay here
Where I feel it all, feel nothing at all inside hereI'm chasing that sweetness
Chasing that sweetness
Ha (repeat)Say something that'll carry me away
Something that'll make me stay
Say something that'll carry me away, carry me away, carry me away
