The Otherside

Ghost Loft

Can you feel the sorrow in the rain?
Will you face tomorrow just the same?We've been spending most of our days
Breaking free from these shackles and chains
Shoot down the moon straight from the sky
Ride on to through the othersideOh, ride on through to the otherside
Oh, ride on through to the othersideWatch the roses as they turn to stone
Brim with life until we're dust and bonesWe've been spending most of our days
Breaking free from these shackles and chains
Shoot down the moon straight from the sky
Ride on to through the othersideOh, ride on through to the otherside
Oh, ride on through to the othersideSlow down the pace, we can wait
Til the morning light
Why dont we try to ride on through
To the otherside?Oh, ride on through to the otherside
Oh, ride on through to the otherside
