Sitting With Me

Mary Mary

They say, there she goes, that ol' holy roller
Think she special, someone needs to tell her
That she ain't no better than me
They say, she's such a geek, that ol' Jesus freak
Everytime she opens up her mouth to speak
She's always talkin' 'bout being saved and holy
That was me, Miss Unpopular
Never asked to be part of the in crowd
But everyone knew who I was
'Cause my life screamed Jesus, alright
Yeah, I've been left out, looked over
Just for carrying this cross on my shoulder
But it's okay with me
If I'm the last one that's picked for the team
I'll sit on the sideline
As long as He's sitting with me
They said he wasn't ordinary
'Cause he wanted to be married
Before he let himself be with someone else
Even said he was unnatural
But what they didn't see, didn't see that he
He was much more man than they'd ever be
'Cause he was a man of integrity
Just like me, he was Mister Unpopular
Never asked to part of the in crowd
Everyone knew who he was
'Cause his life screamed Jesus and love
Yeah, I've been left out, looked over
Just for carrying this cross on my shoulder
But it's okay with me
If I'm the last one that's picked for the team
I'll sit on the sideline
As long as He's sitting with me
I know someday I'll shine
I'll wait till it's my time
But I won't move
I'll sit with you
Yeah, I've been left out, looked over
Just for carrying this cross on my shoulder

But it's okay with me
If I'm the last one that's picked for the team
I'll sit on the sideline
As long as He's sitting with me
Left out, looked over
Just for carrying this cross on my shoulder
But it's okay with me, it's okay with me
I'll sit on the sideline
As long as He's sitting with me
