Won't you take me home,
I will follow through.
I can feel your arms,
bent and bound in two.
Won't you take me home,
home to what I knew.
You can hear my heart,
hard and sold by you. We'll save again, hold the last chance,
for all, anyone will love again.
Alone alone, say you're unknown,
By us anymore. By I. Won't you take me home,
I will follow through.
I can see your heart,
Pounding out anew.
When you take me home,
home to what we knew.
You can hear my heart,
Hard and sold to you. We'll save again, hold the last chance,
for all, anyone will love again.
Alone alone, say you're unknown,
By us anymore. By I.
We'll save again, hold the last chance,
for all, anyone will love again.
Alone alone, say you're unknown,
By us anymore. By I.
