

Thing On a Spring

Fireside

Oh, if you say that you are over me
Then I guess I'm over you
And if you've found out why it hurts so bad
Then let me find out too I never learned about the endings
Nobody told me of the truth
No one will last me for a lifetime
No one will ever be like you And you can tell me stories
Of beauty and of glow
I'll find out when you're lying
But not ever when I am dying Please, don't be a stranger to this body
Tell it about that sweet embrace
Give it the pleasure to be wanted
Give it whatever love it takes
