Upon a Rivers Sky

I Killed the Prom Queen

Rebellion of a drive prince afraid to turn to ask for help
Even if you could see through my Falling apart to die why?
And even if you could see through my eyesThis time I will not be denied I'm seeing
A better tomorrow this time
I will not be denied, cry, die
Today forever I will not be denied of this fateBlind, we are all blindThe sixth demon he pulls his strings
And he will see (me)
