

About Farewell

Alela Diane

It is plent to see that i have one full at the door
And i know that your dear heart is telling you
 To run deep down somewhere
Deep down somewhereI heard somebody say
 That the brightest lights
 Cast the biggest shadows

So honey i got to let you goSeven years to you dear heart is all that i can give
 And i know that without me
 You'll find just what you need,
 Deep down somewhere,
 Deep down somewhere
 I heard somebody say
 That the brightest lights
 Cast the biggest shadows
 So honey i got to let you go
 Living is the hardest part
 That's what we've always said
 Once upon the other side
 Is best not to look back
 That's what we say about farewell
