

I've Got Some Mind Over What Matters

Joe Bonamassa

I can see the future but that was yesterday
Saw my deck of tarot cards and now I can't see my fate
I got some mind over what matters
And now I'm deep down in a hole She took a caddie, so I gotta hitch a ride
Left me in the dark with daggers in my side
I got some mind over what matters
But I'm still deep down in a hole I win a race, some say I lost
I put the blame just before I crossed
I got some mind over what matters
But I'm still deep down in a hole
Hm hm hmm, hm hm hmm, hm hm hmm, hm hm hmm Might think I'm a bad man 'cause I made her cry
But you ain't lived with her and seen the other side
I'm tryna get to the bottom of why I made her hurt
I may not dig no hole but I'm gon' get shoveled I had no Jesus in my heart
I went to church and boy I did my part
I got some mind over what matters
But I'm still deep down in a hole I took her out, gave her good champagne
She drank it down and left me the pile of pain
I got some mind over what matters
But I'm still deep down in a hole I bought her dresses, a new pair of shoes
She gave me grief and a whole lotta blues
I got some mind over what matters
But I'm still deep down in a hole
I took her to Paris, a nice Texas town
She didn't like it so we turned right back around
I got some mind over what matters
But I'm still deep down in a hole
I got some mind over what matters
But I'm still deep down in a hole Hm hm hmm, hm hm hmm, hm hm hmm, hm hm hmm
