

Mandy Is Two

Billie Holiday

Mandy is two
You ought to see her eyes of cornflower blue
They really look as it they actually knew
That she's a big girl now Mandy is two
You ought to see how many things she can do
She knows her alphabet
And ties her own shoes
And no one showed her how If you could see her majesty
With braids in her hair
Almost as though her Sunday beau
Came around and brought her an orchid to wear Mummy is blue
Because her little girl is going on three
But Miss Amanda she's as proud as can be Cause she's a big girl now
