

More Than Meets the Eye (feat. Madeleine Jayne)

Chevy Levett

Verse 1

So here's the story bout a girl and boy who ever were so passionate
Never showed embarrassment there never was comparison
Compared to their relationship, cause they went so well together
But sometimes they couldn't make their mind up like the Melbourne weather
But they were perfect, yeah they were the best team
Chilling in the bed sheets with lip stick on his left cheek
From the kisses she was giving him, man they're goofy
Cuddling and snuggling as they would watch their movies
One day she would get a text, then send an sms back
He leaned over but she wouldn't let him see the messages
He didn't care he didn't really take notice
Till she stood up and she said she had to go quick
"Was it something I've done? Please stay and talk to me"
But she ignored the plea, and said that she was forced to leave
He said "just stay here? I promise I can make it right"
She shook her head and left, she didn't even say goodbye

Chorus

There's more than meet's the eye,
You're never gonna learn to forgive, to forget, to love again
If you can't see there's more than meets the eye,
Take a step back and look in the reflection
There's more, than meets, the eye

Verse 2

He tried to message her, he tried calling
No matter what he did, she just ignored him
He turned paranoid, he started losing it
His heart was bruised and oozing, man he was confused as shit
He went to her house, hoping he could chat to her
He'd do anything just hoping to hear back from her
He waked up the stairs, straight into her room to see
Her quickly turn off her computer screen
He started yelling stuff like "I don't need this"
"I can't even look at you, I know that you're cheating"
"I did everything you ever wanted, I cant believe you

You're so see through, man I don't need you"
He said "this sucks, now I give up
Worst mistake of all was falling in love"
He said, "so who's the guy? I really need an answer"
She wiped away a tear and said "I'm sorry, I have cancer"

Chorus

There's more than meet's the eye,
You're never gonna learn to forgive, to forget, to love again
If you can't see there's more than meets the eye,
Take a step back and look in the reflection
There's more, than meets, the eye

Verse 3

His whole world turned upside down
She's facing death she's on the front line now
But she forgave him cause he loved her with all his heart
But at that moments when his world began to fall apart
He knew that shortly that she'd be facing heavens gates
So just to make her smile he started talking bout a wedding date
Cause he's in love with her, and she's in love with him
It doesn't phase him that she has a couple months to live
He said "I want to make it clear to you from now, till the very end, I promise that I'm here for you"
She cried a thousand tears, until she had no more left
He whispered that he loved her, as he kissed her on the forehead

Chorus

There's more than meet's the eye,
You're never gonna learn to forgive, to forget, to love again
If you can't see there's more than meets the eye,
Take a step back and look in the reflection
There's more, than meets, the eye
