

Paris in the Rain

Alcazar

Ive been searching every nightclub from Marais to Montparnasse
Clouds above are crying Im a stranger you can trust
Heartaches Im escaping love thats gone insane
Fountains heal the heartache, Paris in the rain, Paris in the rain
Paris in the rain, Paris in the rainWhere I love to love you
Where I love to love you
Where I love to love you
Where I love to love youCatwalk something gaultier looking sharp in a mcqueen
Dior Galliano share the glamor of the scene
But seasons have an ending and the glamor was in vain
Fountains heal the heartache, Paris in the rain, Paris in the rain
Paris in the rain, Paris in the rainWhere I love to love you
Where I love to love you
Where I love to love you
Where I love to love youSmiling through ovations at a fashion years awards
Then shes crying to the airport from place De La Concorde
Its a city built on romance love thats gone insane
Fountains heal the heartache, Paris in the rain, Paris in the rain
Paris in the rain, Paris in the rainWhere I love to love you
Where I love to love you
Where I love to love you
Where I love to love youParis in the rain
Where I love to love you
Paris in the rain
Where I love to love youParis in the rain
Where I love to love you
Paris in the rain
Where I love to love youParis in the rain
Paris in the rain
Paris in the rain
Paris in the rain
