Breathless

Mercutio

Breathless, I'm breathless
How could you let this
Happen when we had
So many plans?

Go on a-thinkin'
That I won't forget you
It may take some time
But there's more on my mind than you
Than you, than you

Reckless, oh you've been so reckless
With all of my feelings
And you tossed them around
Battered, my heart broke and shattered
And my words fall out tattered
As they float to the ground

Oh senseless, so senseless
But circumstance is
A mistress so ruthless
I never knew
Blind down the dark path
Of least resistance
I've made up my mind
And I've got no more time for you
For you, for you

The fireflies illuminate
As they hover up above
I move to brush your hair away
You fade as I wake up

Oh breathless, I'm breathless
How could you let this
Happen when we had
So many plans?

Go on a-thinkin'
That I won't forget you

It may take some time
But there's more on my mind than you
Than you, than you
