Hold Me Down

Danity Kane

Yeah, you know what baby
No matter what I go through
No matter what I do, you're always there
To hold me down and that's real
You tell me there's nothing better than me
So you draft me like I?m top pick of the League
Then, you gave me what I need
So fly it was like you planted a seed
Oh, even when there is trouble
Oh, you handle it before I know
Oh, so I?m letting you know it?s beautiful
Us together, who could ask for more?
Any time, any place I know you?re down
You?re the type I can trust to be around
The way you hear me and feel me
Got me loving you that much more really
I don?t want to see myself
With anyone else that?s the way I feel
Got me so caught up I?m stuck on you
So real I know I got the truth
I?m the only one written on your list
You and me, so legitimate
Everything is about your chick
That?s why we're so exclusive
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
Hold me, yes, you hold me down
(I know you got me)
Hold me, yes, you hold me down
Hold me, yes, you hold me down
(You know I got you too)
No matter what jumps off you hold me down
So deep that I ain't worried
Thinking maybe you out there running the streets, no
You blend with me so perfectly
I swear you got me convinced you were made for me
Oh, you?re everything I?ve been missing

Oh, with you there?s no second guessing
Oh, you with me is a blessing
That I can't and just won't let go of
Any time, any place I know you?re down
You?re the type I can trust to be around

The way you hear me and feel me
Got me loving you that much more really
I don?t want to see myself
With anyone else that?s the way I feel
Got me so caught up I?m stuck on you
So real I know I got the truth
I?m the only one written on your list
You and me, so legitimate
Everything is about your chick
That?s why we're so exclusive
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
Got a life with you, got it right with you baby
More than just a friend, more than just a man you are Everything I could ever need you, when my heart got the best of me
I ain't gonna let another come between
I'ma hold you down the same way you hold me
I?m the only one written on your list
You and me, so legitimate
Everything is about your chick
That?s why we're so exclusive
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
I?m the only one written on your list
You and me, so legitimate
Everything is about your chick
That?s why we're so exclusive
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
You hold me, baby, you hold me down
You hold me, baby, you hold me down

Hold me, yes, you hold me down
Hold me, yes, you hold me down
Hold me, yes, you hold me down
No matter what jumps off you hold me down
