Rising Up To Life

Shaman

Tired from this errand...
Another dead end
The Sun has set to soon today...
Inside of me
This new horizon shows no shores, Loneliness, uncertainty and Everything seems to grow...arround meThe whole world is shaking over
That last small breach breaks away
Light kisses my face, as invade all my soul...
Rising up to Life!!Broke cocoon
The coziness now it's over
Now I've found my own
All the doors are open!!!The whole world is shaking over
That last small breach breaks away
Light kisses my face, as invade all my soul...
