

Ordinary Lives

The Slow Show

I'm proud of you boy Look how far you came proud of who you are happy how you changed
I wouldn't see you much more
But that's ok.
I can rest assured that you're happy
But I am not afraid
I can see so clear
Proud of who I am
it's time to disappear
this is my farewell
I can't stay here
I'm looking at the crowd
Hope they understand
That everything is changing
Everything is changing Everything is changing
Everything is changing
Everything is changing
I am not afraid
I can see so clear
Tired of being down
Time to disappear
if this is my farewell'cause I can't stay here
I'm looking at the crowd
hope they understand
Everything is changing
Everything is changing
Everything is changing
Everything is changing
This is no ordinary life
This is no ordinary life
This is no ordinary life
This is no ordinary life
