The Shadow (Reflections Are Overrated)

Taylor Joal

You think you won?
I promise you,You have lost.

I've got a knife in my hands
And this knife has got a knife of it's own

You can scream all you want
Who the fuck will hear you?
It's not me who will kill you
I can assure you

This knife will save you from the shadow
The one staring back at me
Are you ready to die?
Where the fuck is your god?
