

Shaky Ground (Hey Na Na Na)

Freedom Fry

Feeling like the night is young,
Everybody's time will come,
Nobody wants to leave alone, hey there, won't you take me home?I don't wanna lose, but maybe I should chance it,
Feel out of my years, teenager at the door,
When the sun is in my eyes,
Will we still be dancing, On shaky ground?Na na na, Hey hey, Na na na,
Hey, Na na na, Hey hey, Na na na,Nothing in my world is wrong,
(At) least I'm not the only one,
Nobody wants to live alone, hey there, won't you sing along?I don't wanna choose,
'cause I could never change it,
Feel out of my years, teenager at the door,
When the sun is in my eyes,
We will still be dancing, On shaky ground?Na na na, Hey hey, Na na na,
Hey, Na na na, Hey hey, Na na na,We build our lives, our fears inside,
They stand on shaky ground,
When all we are starts to collide,
Well, just look what we've found,
Just look what we've found,I don't wanna lose, but maybe I should chance it,
Feel out of my years, teenager at the door,
When the sun is in my eyes,
Will we still be dancing, On shaky ground?Na na na, Hey hey, Na na na,
Hey, Na na na, Hey hey, Na na na,
