

I Just Don't Have the Time

Randall Bramblett

I'd like to get to know you
I'd like to be your friend
But I just don't have the time
To hear about the latest whatever it is you're doin
And ride around the golf course with you drinkin wine
You say maybe we could sit down and get down to business
What do I think about the state of the world
Spend some quality time one on one
Shoot the shit while I go out of my mind
I'd like to get to know you
I bet you got your ducks in line
I'd really like to be your friend
But I just don't have the time
I'd really like to hear about your rehab
How you crashed and burned
But you got yourself together now
Moved down to the beach and got a new lease
Writin a book on spiritual somethin or other
Livin is easy and prosperity's sweet
The more I listen the more I think I need some therapy
All I want to do is get through my five stages of grief
From being around you
Chorus
Did I hear about the Large Hadron Collider
What if all the hadrons go wrong
Did I read a book called The God Particle
I wonder if we could ever fit that in a song
That we could write together
Somethin about broken hearts and stormy weather
We'd be the next Simon and Garfunkle
I'm runnin out of rhymes so I got to holler uncle
Chorus
