Another Bad Goodbye

Raghav

Oh
Too many miles away but you're never here to stay
And I just can't seem to get you out of my mind
I could lie here awake 24 hours a day
But somehow I know I won't find enough time, oh no
Now I see how true love can be
And it makes me feel so happy I could cry
But knowing me there's a tendency
To hold you back to save me from your eyes
And another bad goodbye
There's a land way overseas a place where you have got to be
And I'll take your word that you'll come back alright
I see you've all packed up to leave, so you won't be home for weeks
I can't put myself through all this one more time, oh no
Now I see how true love can be
And it makes me feel so happy I could cry
But knowing me there's a tendency
To hold you back to save me from your eyes
And another bad goodbye
You always said we're meant to be
And now I know I feel the same
So this time as you up to leave
Tell me what I gotta do to make you stay
Now I see how true love can be
And it makes me feel so happy I could cry
But knowing me there's a tendency
To hold you back to save me from your eyes
And another bad goodbye
Now I see how true love can be
And it makes me feel so happy I could cry
But knowing me there's a tendency
To hold you back to save me from your eyes
And another bad goodbye
