

A Lot Of Things

Rosi Golan

Nothing ever seems to go exactly how you plan, there's a lot of things that I don't understand

I knew a man who fell asleep, but he fell into his death

There's a lot of things that I don't understand So tell me how the heart begins, and tell me why it slows
And if you find a promise land, then tell me where you go When the light hits the water like it's reaching for my hand

And I feel the shivers running down my back

When your words are on my lips, like I thought of them myself

And if you find a promise land, then tell me where you go Nothing, nothing, nothing ever seems to go exactly how you plan

Nothing, nothing, there's a lot of things I don't understand Like when you know someone's gone but you feel them just the same

And you carry on as though they're coming back

When the night settles in but you're running from yourself

There's a lot of things that I don't understand

There's a lot of things that I don't understand Nothing, nothing, nothing ever seems to go exactly how you plan
Nothing, nothing, there's a lot of things I don't understand
