I'm With You

Adam Pascal

Starlight and wonder
The universe seen through your eyes
The moon is a glorious halo
Hanging high over your head every night
Spinning and spinning
A flick of the wrist and a smile
And in the morning so early Deep conversations are spoken in tongues by sunlightTonight, you can dream you're a star
You can walk on the clouds
And float to the ground
And I'm with youWe stare out the window
And look to the sky every night
The stars are the beacons of heaven
And maybe one day you'll go up for a ride
Oh, you are the sunshine
You are the face that I dream of
You are your mother's religion
Down on her knees as she
Kisses your heartache awayTonight, you can dream you're a star
You can walk on the clouds
And float to the ground
And I'm with you
Tonight, you can get very far
The calm and the storm
Are forever yours
And I'm with youI've thrown coins in the fountain
I've been to the mountain
I've lived through the violence
I've seen what man can do to man
I can't promise you peace
I can't promise you money
But I promise to make you the best man I can Hold on to something
Cause your life's about to beginOh, oh, oh, oh
Ooh, ooh
Aah, hey, aah, ooh, oh
Ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh

Whoa-hoah, oh
Oh-oh, oh, oh
Ooh, ooh, ooh, aahTonight, you can dream you're a star
You can walk on the clouds
And float to the ground
And I'm with youTonight, you can dream you're a star
And I'm with you
