

Now That I Have You

The Company

All of my life it seemed that something had been missing i didn't know what to do Days would pass me by each lonely as the other until i met you
You opened the door
and let the sunshine
in my life will never be
the same again

Now that i have you
everything just seems so right Now that i have you
i'm alive
You are the song that i'll be singing my whole life through I'm living in a brighter world
now that i have you

Looking ahead i see the two of us together i'll never let you go You're so dear to me and it isn't any wonder why i love you so

You opened the door
and let the sunshine
in my life will never be
the same again

Now that i have you
everything just seems so right Now that i have you
i'm alive

singing my whole life through

now that i have you

I feel this love is real i see it in your eyes
You take my hand
and i understand
you are mine..

Now that i have you
everything just seems so right Now that i have you
I'm alive

now that i have you...
