

Final Thrill

Funker Vogt

Another land, another culture
With a different kind of life
What was once forbidden
Belongs here to social life While you travel to those countries
You can live a thousand lives
In a castle somewhere in Britain
Or a temple down in asia Give me a golden shower
Give me a new thrill
Give me this experience
And give me the last kill
Give me almighty power
Give me a strong will
Give me a new life
And give me the final thrill Hatred, boredom and the lies
Plenty of false moral rules
Breaking them in many ways
You don't belong to these fools
