One day the world is gonna turn on you hold on tight im there with you theyl try and brake you but they wont get thru dont be them just be you.

When your falling
Ill be coming home
Dont stop calling
Ill be coming home

Some day your heart is gonna brake in two, take my hand we understand that, it will hurt it wont break you just be strong ride it thru

When your falling
Ill be coming home
Dont stop calling
Ill be coming home....
Ill be coming home.

My skin my flesh my bone call on me and il b home and no matter what you do il be waiting right here for you.

When you falling il be comin home
Dont stop calling
Ill be coming home....
Dont stop calling me
And il be coming home
Dont stop calling me and il be coming home

Ill be coming home
