

See Ya Soon

Jake Miller

Yeah

I've been away for quite some time now

I think its time I come home

Yeah

And if you ask me, Ill say I'm just fine, but

Deep inside I'm alone

Damn

And I don't know if I can do this much longer

Baby, help me pull through

Trust me

The good life isn't all that good

When I can't even enjoy it with you

[Chorus]

Girl, I can't wait to come home to you

No, I can't wait to come home to you

I just need to see your face

I just need to hear your voice

This whole missin' you thing just won't do

Baby, I need to come home to you

Yeah, I can't wait to come home to you

Wait, you know what?

Screw it girl, I comin' back right now

This whole missin' you thing is now through

See ya soon

I haven't kissed your lips almost six to seven weeks, now

Startin' to feel like amiss

The closest thing I've seen in a smile in a while

Is the smiley face when we text

Girl, I hate to see you cry, and its hard to stay strong

So I'm constantly just tryna pretend

That it doesn't kill me deep inside

When I look into your eyes

Cause I always end up leavin' again

Yeah, but

Now I'm done doin' that

I come and I go, but I'm through with that

No, I'm never gonna leave your side again
So tell me, are you cool with that?
Yeah, ha, me too
Now its just me and you
I love you baby, I'll see ya soon

[Chorus]

Baby, you my everything
Yeah I hope you know it
But when I'm half way across the world
Its hard to show it
Always beggin' me to come home
So that's what I'mma do
Yeah, I'm hoppin' on the first flight out
Ill see ya soon
Baby, you my everything
Yeah I hope you know it
But when I'm half way across the world
Its hard to show it
Always beggin' me to come home
So that's what I'mma do
Yeah, I'm hoppin' on the first flight out

[Chorus]

See ya soon
