

Paranoid Schizophrenic Apocalyptic Whisper Kitten

John Reuben

Paranoid, schizophrenic
Apocalyptic whisper kitten
Come on, baby, let's get downParanoid, schizophrenic
Apocalyptic whisper kitten
What's that sound?No words spoken
Will go unnoticed
Happy as we've ever beenQuiet friend
Silent companion
The ghost inside in your headHallelujah, miracles for fools
Hallelujah, when the spirit moves
I wasn't looking
For relevant religion
The demons I know have got plenty of styleRun for the hills
Stay for a while
Leave your personality behindHallelujah, miracles for fools
Hallelujah, when the spirit movesParanoid, schizophrenic
Apocalyptic whisper kitten
Working on some brand new fabric
Polyester, satin, linenWhen it comes to improvements
Old money funds new movements
Reach inside your bag of tricks
The next healthy alternative
For what it's worth
Greener artificial turf
And if that magic doesn't work
Culture whores ask for moreHallelujah, you've been rejected
Brother, everything's exhausted
At least you know where to go
When you don't have any more optionsHallelujah, miracles for fools
Hallelujah, when the spirit movesHallelujah, miracles for fools
Hallelujah, when the spirit movesParanoid, schizophrenic
Apocalyptic whisper kitten
Paranoid, schizophrenic
Apocalyptic whisper kittenParanoid, schizophrenic
Apocalyptic whisper kitten

Paranoid, schizophrenic
Apocalyptic whisper kitten
