

The Letter

Bif Naked

Can you remember chestnut street
And algae ripping at our feet?
I was just a little girl
And you were my whole world
What I'd give to be lying in your arms
What I'd give to be your girl again
Did you know that you were my first love?
Did you know it's you I still dream of?
I've grown up a lot since then
My nostalgic heart will never mend
What I'd give to be lying in your arms
What I'd give to be your girl again
What I'd give to be your girl again
