

Music Is the Answer

Joe Goddard

Who can bring me back to life?
I can see the way that this could go
Oh, haven't show you face
I heard you're somewhere here with us
I don't know who to believe
But I've been hoping I can't tell when this would end
You're just wild, a disposing soul
I just listen to the noise
And the silence in your voice
The sound is in all I hear You take me higher still
And you'll always will
You take me higher still
You can heal my heart You take me higher still
And you'll always will
You take me higher still
You can heal my heart Music is the answer to your problems
Keep on moving then you can solve them Music is the answer to your problems
Keep on moving then you can solve them Music is the answer to your problems
Keep on moving then you can solve them Music is the answer to your problems
Keep on moving then you can solve them Heal my heart, take me higher
Heal my heart, take me higher
Heal my heart, take me higher
Heal my heart, take me higher
Heal my heart, take me higher
Heal my heart, take me higher
Heal my heart, take me higher
Heal my heart, take me higher
Heal my heart, take me higher
Heal my heart, take me higher still If time is mess for you
Will you find your favourite tune to me?
Been spinning out there at the single threat
I have to hold me up
Now when they came up just can feel the pain is lifting I can't tell when this would end
You're just wild, a disposing soul
I just listen to the noise
And the silence in your voice
The sound is in all I hear You take me higher still
And you'll always will
You take me higher still

You can heal my heart You take me higher still

And you'll always will

You take me higher still

You can heal my heart Music is the answer to your problems

Keep on moving then you can solve them Music is the answer to your problems

Keep on moving then you can solve them Music is the answer to your problems

Keep on moving then you can solve them Music is the answer to your problems

Keep on moving then you can solve them Take me higher, heal my heart

Take me higher, heal my heart

Take me higher, heal my heart

Take me higher, heal my heart

Take me higher, heal my heart

Take me higher, heal my heart

Take me higher, heal my heart
