Find Out

Aleem

Itâ€™s been a while since iâ€™ve seen you baby couldnâ€™t wait to get you and I weâ€™ve been drifting lately
you swear to be nothingâ€™s wrong yeah but I can Tell youâ€™re not yourself donâ€™t you think
I know thereâ€™s someone else
How could you think
Iâ€™d never find out
I see his car
Parked outside your house
I hear him whisper In the background
Think I know you by now
Guess nothing lasts forever
How could you think
Iâ€™d never find out, find out
Your seem no dance around
Every question
Turn the blame all on me
Pretty sure that Iâ€™m not the second guessing Cause I know what to believe Baby I can Tell youâ€™re not yourself
donâ€™t you think
I know thereâ€™s someone else
How could you think
Iâ€™d never find out
I see his car
Parked outside your house
I hear him whisper in the background
Think I know you by now
Guess nothing lasts forever
How could you think
Iâ€™d never find out, find out
People talking canâ€™t avoid it
I thought I knew you better
How could you think
Youâ€™d never get away

With this Iâ€™m not stupid
So give back my swear
How could you think
Iâ€™d never find out
I see his car
Parked outside your house
How could you think
Iâ€™d never find out,
I see his car
How could you think
Iâ€™d never find out, find out,
Iâ€™d never find out, find out,
