Soda

Cressida

like i knew that you would come to me and we would run away with all our dreams. Don't you think if i prepared a bit that we would try to make it all complete. We'll run away it's not the kind of thing that i do in a normal day but it's so cool that we're together and we're smiling drink-ing soda.

I want to jump in a lake sun shining down on a beach in the summer(x6)
