

So Wonderful

Ladies' Code (ë î•'ë''îš¼ î½''ë“œ)

Somewhere in the back, of my dated heart,
Hidden behind the wall of scars.
There is a light, that keeps flashing off and on,
On and off,
Off and on,
How could I know, how love should feel?
It's been so long since I've broken the seal,
Wrapped in a coat, I've been wearing for too long,
On and off,
Off and on
Ooh, oohh
It's so wonderful, so wonderful
Hard to believe, how could it be?
So wonderful, so wonderful, how it could happen to me. Instantly warm, instantly alright,
My better judgement just closed its eyes.
Now all I can see, is your light
That's flashing on,
On and on,
On and on,
Ohh oh yeah
It's so wonderful, so wonderful
Hard to believe, how could it be?
So wonderful, so wonderful, how it could happen to me. Had all of the birds, falling at your feet.
How did you stumble baby and fall for me? It's so wonderful, so wonderful
Hard to believe, how could it be?
So wonderful, so wonderful, now that you happen to me.
