

Love, Love, Love (Love, Love)

As Tall As Lions

Have I ever told you before I think you're beautiful when you're sleeping?
I have faith you watch me in my slumber, too.
If I'm
all that you're looking for,
tell me,
why is there a river streaming down your face?
Sometimes makes me wonder all about your love. After some time it's something i find true. Love's not a grave, it won't decay on you.
So many days I was afraid of love. What if nothing is just that and suffering's the only thing we're good at?
Dreaming, picture that a whole world in a slumber.
But don't get too attached to the living, even every single memory's fleeting.
That's a fact, being torn asunder.
But to my surprise, no reason why, one day i woke up and realized. Give it to me, love. I'll keep you in my focus with love and affection.

Songwriters

KAEMPFFERT, BERT/GABLER, MILT Published by Lyrics © Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Lyrics provided by <https://damnlyrics.com/>