Give Me, Take You

Duncan Browne

I give you me, and you take
I offer real, and you give me fake
Only an expert can tell between the two
Why don't you take from me what I give to you ?You take from me, and I give
What is killing me makes you live
Give to me what it takes to be
And take from you what it means to seeSo give to you and I'll take from me
Through your deafness I will hear, and through my blindness you will see
Take what I give that only you will see
What I give to you is only what you give to me
