Move On

Loggins & Messina

Better not lie before it's too late, I wanna know why
I wanna know, I wanna know why you keep making me wait
I guess a girl can't understand what it is that a woman will give a man
And if you're not gonna love it, oh, you better move onYou know I'm getting uptight with your forgetting ways
But girl, it ain't right, it ain't right, I guess it must be a phase
When a girl can't understand what it is that a woman gives a man
And if you're not gonna love it, oh, you better move onYou got no re, no reason for thinking that you're gonna do wrong
So stop your reason, give up or you better be gone, move onYou got no reason for thinking that you're gonna do wrong
So stop your reason, give up, move on
