

A Sound

Molly Drake

A sound can take you where it will
A sound can make your heart stand still
A summer rain that drips from leaf to leaf
Can bring alive again an old forgotten grief
A sound can take you by the hand
To wander in an ancient land of long ago
When we were very young
And still so many songs unsung
The web is woven, the net is cast
The spell is made, oh let it last
When time had never brushed his wing
Said his say, had his fling
A sound when someone says your name
All at once a tiny tongue of flame
Then I cannot speak
I dare not turn around
And yet I know I know I know
It's just a sound.
