

Tongues

Deathstars

No prayers can reach me here
No light can touch
Among reduced Bibles, cigarettes and drugs
I carve your name in my flesh Listen, listen
Then come and take my hand Tongues, tongues
Speak the little girls name
Tongues, tongues
Shame, shame Tongues, tongues
Speak the little girls name
Tongues, tongues
Shame, shame Innocence will never kiss me again
Never lick my stitched scars
Your lipsticks between the legs of hell
Mixed with speed and blood Listen, listen
Then come and take my hand Tongues, tongues
Speak the little girls name
Tongues, tongues
Shame, shame Tongues, tongues
Speak the little girls name
Tongues, tongues
Shame, shame The eggs grow in her open wrists
It has started now
Her taste is on my lips and tongue
The taste of white medicines Listen, listen
Ill come and take your hand Tongues, tongues
Speak the little girls name
Tongues, tongues
Shame, shame Tongues, tongues
Speak the little girls name
Tongues, tongues
Shame, shame Speak the little girls name
Shame, shame Tongues, tongues
Speak the little girls name
Tongues, tongues
Shame, shame, shame
