Blue Eyed Soul

Castledoor

You've got a blue-eyed soul
And if you don't let it show
It'll leave you, you won't even know
Without your blue-eyed soul?
Can you keep it simple? Can you let the snare crack?
Can you let it move without holding back?
Are you afraid to let it go?
Without your blue-eyed soul?
You're gonna, lose control
You're gonna, lose control
Without your blue-eyed soul
Without your blue-eyed soul
Without your blue-eyed soul
