

The Ballad of Me and My Brain

The 1975

Well I think I've gone mad!!

Isn't that so sad!!

"What a shame you've lost a brain that you never had"

"Oh mum check the car it can't have gone far, I must have left it on a train or lost it in a bar!!"

It's likely in a Sainsbury's - flirting with the girls and waiting for me

I jumped on a bus, declared my name, asked if anybody had seen my brain

"Your brain was last seen going for a run and you sign an autograph for my daughter Laura? Cos she adores you but I think you're shit"

"I've gotta look for my brain for a bit!!"

I stepped outside, it hurt my eyes

"Well what do you expect when you've got no mind!?!?"

I searched all day it drove me insane -

"Where would I be if I was my brain?" The nice nurse told my she felt my pain but she couldn't find a single trace of my brain

'Oops I Did It Again' started playing

Forget my brain remember my name!!
