

More Than A Memory

Hoobastank

I've become tired of wasting my time
Thinkin' bout choices that I've made
'Cuz I can't move forward while looking behind
The only thing I can do now is Change the way that I use to be
'Cuz now it seems crystal clear to me
'Cuz you're so much more than a memory
'Cuz you're so much more than a memory It wasn't fair for me just to go
And act like I knew what you've been though
'Cuz I wasn't there and I'll never know
Couldn't see from your point of view But I'm doing all I can for you to see
That I understand that I understand
You're so much more than a memory 'Cuz you're so much more than a memory
So don't close the door on what still can be
'Cuz you're so much more than a memory Please don't go 'cuz I finally know
That the past is gone
And I know that I was wrong, I was wrong You're so much more than a memory
Yes, you're so much more than a memory
So don't close the door on what still can be
'Cuz you're so much more than a memory Please don't go 'cuz I finally know
That the past is gone
And I know that I was wrong Please don't go 'cuz I finally know
That the past is gone
And I know that I was wrong, I was wrong
