Shattered

Remy Zero

Grace in light
Somehow I found you here
Told from the hope and fear
That holds us inside, pull me outLook from the world I've known
And all that was broken, cold
Broaden me in hereFrom you, one look, just one look
And everything is shattered
From you one word towers burn
And fall, fall apartJust be still
Arms that surround like the sun
Facing the life we've begun
And holds us insideFrom you, one look, just one look
And everything is shattered
From you one word towers burn
And fall, fall apartFrom you, one look, just one look
And everything is shattered
From you one word towers burn
And fall, fall apartFires curl, shadows swirl
A hollow sound
That no one else can hear
But me in silent streams
Forever more we dream
