

I Still Do

Why Don't We

There is no better view
Than watching you strip down after we argue
Making it worth the pain that we go through
That smile on your face
'Cause nobody knows you, like I do I still picture it (It's been a couple of months)
I swore in my head (This was the right thing for us)
But it's breaking my heart, it's breaking it off
And now I'm afraid to say (Hey) I still do love you, hate you
I still do hate to love you
I still do want you to want me
Like I'm wanting you
Oh, I still do
Stick to my word when I say I don't want you back
But what if I did? Don't hold it against me
'Cause you got the upper hand now that I'm lonely
And I feel the past pulling my body
To tell you I'm sorry I still picture it (It's been a couple of months)
I swore in my head (This was the right thing for us)
But it's breaking my heart, it's breaking it off
And now I'm afraid to say (Hey) I still do love you, hate you
I still do hate to love you
I still do want you to want me
Like I'm wanting you
Oh, I still do Oh, I still
I still (Can't help myself)
I don't (Want no one else)
It's been the longest time
You're still there on my mind I still (Can't help myself)
I don't (Want no one else)
It's been the longest time
You're still there on my mind I still do love you, hate you
I still do hate to love you
I still do want you to want me
Like I'm wanting you
Oh, I still do Oh, I still do
