Moved By Mercy

Matthew West

She said â€œI keep having the same dream
Close my eyes and Iâ€™m chasing a younger me
Try to wrap my arms around her
Shield her from the hell that found her
But Iâ€™m always just a little too late
I see the tears falling down her face
How come no one protected
The little girl that the world rejectedâ€•
Oh, where do you go when you canâ€™t go back Canâ€™t save the past
And she cries in the middle of the night
â€œTake me far away now
From this broken place now
Somewhere they canâ€™t hurt me
I wanna be moved by mercy
Jesus, I canâ€™t see You
I just know I need You
Help me start a new life
Let my heart be moved by mercyâ€• â€œI used to be a future burning bright
Now Iâ€™m just another sleepless nightâ€•
All the hurt that you hide behind that door Iâ€™m not gonna let it hurt you anymore â€œFor so long I thought You abandoned me
Now Iâ€™m starting to see things differentlyâ€•
Iâ€™m the one who began a good work in you
And Iâ€™m the one who is gonna see it through Iâ€™ll see you through
For so long I felt so unworthy
But in My arms all your shame is moved by mercy
So here I stand, a child undeserving
Take My hand and let your heart
Be moved by mercy

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by WEST, MATTHEW Lyrics Â© Warner/Chappell Music, Inc.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/