

everything is going to hell

Teen Suicide

everything i like is going to hell and everyone i like is living in hell i've got no use for friends only connections
give me what i want and leave me alone and in five years from now i'll be living in hell in ten years from now i might as well be dead when i wake up at night i am floating above the sheets on my bed i've got no use for time i've got enough
